

The Wasatch Wave

"A Weekly Newspaper Serving the Best Interests of Wasatch Co."

Established March 23, 1889

MEMBER OF THE
UTAH STATE PRESS ASSOCIATION

NATIONAL NEWSPAPER
ASSOCIATION
AFFILIATE MEMBER

Entered as Second Class Mail Matter at Heber City, Utah

F. W. MOUNTFORD, Publisher

J. F. MOUNTFORD, Editor & Manager

F. J. REYNOLDS, Advertising Mgr.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

$3.50 per year — Payable in Advance

Feature & Editorial Phone: 654-1471

Heber City Society News Items: Annie L. Clyde - Ph. 654-1714

SOCIETY NEWS

Lynn Clyde is home on a ten-day furlough from Ft. Bliss, Texas, where he out of 1200 men won a trophy for top man in physical fitness. After a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Clyde and family he will go to Ft. Lewis, Washington and be in the Quartermasters Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Simpson were Saturday and Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Squire Simpson and the Jay Simpsons.

Members of the Fourth Ward enjoyed their Relief Society Opening Social by going to Salt Lake. At the new Bureau of Information they saw the lovely murals and statutes from the LDS Booth at the World's Fair and saw the lovely colored film, "The Way to Happiness", visited Pioneer Village and enjoyed a smorgasbord dinner before returning home.

Glen and Connie F. Willams returned to Lima, Montana this week. Since the burial of their baby, Laurie, they were guests of Luella Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sorenson and his parents at woodland.

OBITUARIES

DR. B. DANNENBERG

Dr. Bert Anderson Dannenberg, 85, former Heber City physician died Sept. 17 at an Escondido, California rest home.

He was born on August 26, 1881 at Aurora, Texas to Chas. and Mary Amanda Barto Dannenberg. He attended and graduated from Northwestern University Medical School in 1909. He married Lacy Turner at Heber City in 1910. He established the Heber City Hospital in 1925, was a member of the Wasatch County School Board and draft board.

He moved to Escondido, California in 1935. He was the 1st president of the Escondido Lions Club, commander of the J. B. Slark, American Legion Post.

He is survived by his widow, sons, Doyle and Dale of Escondido; Bert of Roosevelt; and 2 sisters, Mrs. Leslie Pack of Salt Lake; Mrs. Leona Kellogg of Sutter, California; 8 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on September 20 and burial was in Escondido.